

BIRTHDAYS

We believe in celebrating these special occasions while still adhering to our wellness policy. So, go ahead and plan to celebrate your child by providing a goody bag that students can bring home at the end of the day or pencils and fun erasers are a good alternative to celebrate your child at school too. We must be especially mindful of students that have food allergies and do not want to have to exclude anyone during these fun celebrations.

