this story?

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for the user to write their answer to the question above.

The page is framed by a colorful border of various school-related items. At the top, there's a football, a pencil, a leaf, a laptop, a green pen, a paperclip, and a green chalkboard with a smiley face. On the left side, there's a pink letter 'B', a yellow smiley face, a paper airplane, a yellow rocket, a yellow and orange backpack, a paintbrush, a soccer ball, a slice of pizza, a yellow smiley face, and a blue letter 'B'. On the right side, there's a yellow letter 'C', a brown book, a yellow trophy, a pink letter 'B', a green checkmark, a red heart, a yellow and orange backpack, a paperclip, a yellow star, and blue sunglasses. At the bottom, there's a blue letter 'B', a pencil, a red heart, and a blue smiley face.

Book Journal Directions

After each book you read together this summer, complete a Book Journal Entry to tell about the story.

Students entering Kindergarten: Students will respond by drawing a picture. An adult can help write a sentence telling about the picture.

Students entering First & Second Grade: Students can use a combination of drawings and/or words and sentences to respond.

Return the Book Journal to your teacher the first week of school to receive a reward for your hard work this summer! :)
