Reopening the High School – FAQ

Q 1. How does the kids with IEP get the help that they need?

They will be supported by case managers as well as the teachers. Teachers also have office hours in their schedule.

Q 2. My son is in morning Vo-Tech and will not be in person for his classes at the High School -I am concerned with how this will work and will he have teacher support?

That means his afternoon courses will be asynchronous and he will still have the support of his teachers, counselors and administrators. All teachers have office hours as well.

Q 3. Do the kids already have their Schoology log in credentials?

Students log in via their district gmail account.

Q 4. How will a student participate in an elective such as Wood Tech?

This is an asynchronous class where lessons will be provided by the instructor.

Q 5. My 9th grade is missing classes who do we contact?

Please contact their guidance counselor.

Q 6. My son is in the gifted program. I haven't heard anything from his teacher?

She should be reaching out to all of her students very soon.

Q 7. How would a student participate in a Phys ed class?

Our Phys. Ed teachers have developed lessons that can be done through an asynchronous learning platform. Lessons and assignments will be posted to their Schoology page.

Q 8. Is there a supply list? I have only seen the lists for the elementary school.

The HS does not require a supply list. Individual teachers may require supplies and it will be discussed during their class.

Q 9. If I have a broken computer how do I get it fixed?

Please contact the school and we will make arrangements with the technology department.

Q 10. Will all the zoom classes be recorded and made available to the students?

Yes, the lessons are recorded and will be accessible for the students.

Q 11.

Q 12. Is there any chance of fall sports taking place at a later season?

We are still in discussions with the county as well as PIAA and hopefully we can get something together.

Q 13. my child is also missing a class?

Please contact Mr. Lytz at the HS. He is checking into all of these concerns.

Q 14. Can someone reset passwords? can't login and we are using correct username, and Password.

HAC passwords are different from Schoology accounts. Schoology accounts are linked to the students Gmail account with ISD.

Q 15. How do you get in touch with the counselors?

The counselors are working hard at getting back to everyone.

Q 16. My daughter has Physical Science, but it does not have Sync listed, is this an elective?

Physical Science is a general science course and normally isn't considered an elective.
